

Please do not weaken or negate the "do not call" law now in effect in New Jersey--Consumers should have some right to not be harrassed in the privacy of their own homes by telemarketers. We are assailed by junk ads and noisy ads from all angles outside and no longer want our meals interrupted by strangers, most of whom can't even speak English, our sleep disturbed or our work stopped.